

Communications Director

Job description:

The Communications Director is responsible for running operations for the Mahan for Governor press shop: implementing the strategy developed by communications consultants and advisors, and managing the campaign's press secretary, digital director and in-language media program.

Responsibilities:

The Communications Director has the following responsibilities and duties:

- Work closely with the Communications Advisors and Consultants to oversee the entire Communications Department and execute the communications plan.
- Draft and edit speeches, press releases, op-eds, statements, talking points, and rapid-response materials.
- Manage local and national booking for Mayor Mahan and surrogates.
- Lead pitching program for positive and opposition coverage.
- Collaborate with policy, political, field and fundraising teams to execute the overarching campaign plan.

Requirements:

The Communications Director should have the following skills, attributes, and experience:

- At least one cycle in a senior communications role on a statewide campaign.
- Extensive knowledge of California and national politics.
- Exceptional verbal, written, and interpersonal skills.

Matt Mahan

FOR GOVERNOR

- A valid driver's license, access to a vehicle, and a willingness to travel frequently.
- Willingness to commit fully to the demands of a high-intensity statewide race, working nights, weekends, and holidays.
- Candidates with proficiency in Spanish or Vietnamese and connections to in-state media are preferred.

How to apply: Please send your resume and cover letter to info@mahanforcalifornia.com with the subject line “[NAME] Communications Director” as soon as possible.